

298. Never Alone

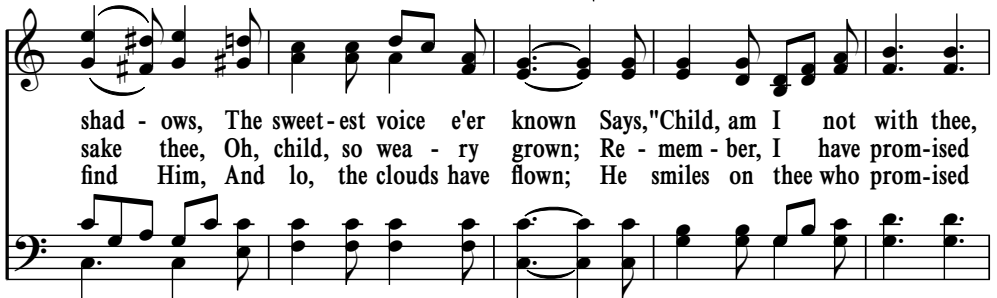

"...I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee." Heb. 13:5

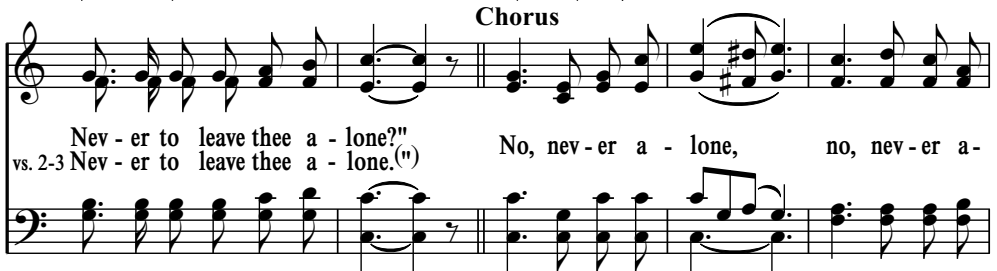

1. How man - y times dis - cour - aged, We sink be - side the way; A - 2. Oh, soul, hast thou for - got - ten The ten - der word and sweet Of 3. Take cour - age, way - worn pil - grim! Tho' mists and shad - ows hide The bout us all is dark - ness, We hard - ly dare to pray. Then, thro' the mists and Him who left be - hind Him The print of bleed - ing feet? "I nev - er will for - face of Him thou lov - est, He's ev - er at thy side. Reach out thy hand and shad - ows, The sweet - est voice e'er known Says, "Child, am I not with thee, sake thee, Oh, child, so wea - ry grown; Re - mem - ber, I have prom - ised find Him, And lo, the clouds have flown; He smiles on thee who prom - ised

Chorus

Nev - er to leave thee a - lone?" No, nev - er a - lone, no, nev - er a - vs. 2-3 Nev - er to leave thee a - lone. (") lone! He prom - ised nev - er to leave me, Nev - er to leave me a - lone.