

290. Behold, the Master Passeth By

"And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by." Lk. 18:37

1. Be - hold, the Mas - ter pass - eth by! O see'st thou
 2. O soul, bowed down with har - rowing care, Hast thou no
 3. One heard Him call - ing long a - go, And straight-way
 4. That "Fol - low Me" his faith - ful ear Seemed ev - ery 5. God gen - tly calls us ev - ery day; Why should we not His plead - ing eye? With low, sad voice He thought for heaven to spare? From earth - ly toils lift left all things be - low, Count - ing his earth - ly day a - fresh to hear; Its ech - oes stirred his then our bliss de - lay? Thou, Lord, e'en now art call - eth thee, "Leave this vain world and fol - low Me!" up thine eye; Be - hold, the Mas - ter pass - eth by!

 gain as loss For Je - sus and His bless - ed cross. spir - it still, And fired his hope, and nerved his will.
 call - ing me; I will leave all and fol - low Thee.