

50. Unity of Brethren

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!" Ps. 133:1

1. Lo, how pleas - ant and how fair too, Is the
2. So it is most pleas - ant too, When Christ's

1. Lo, how pleas - ant most and how fair
2. So it is most pleas - ant too, u - - ni - ty we share; One in teach - - ing held in view, Breth - ren

Is the u - ni - - ty we share;
When Christ's teach - ing held in view,

Christ, dwell a broth - er - hood That is dwell in u - ni - ty And can

One in Christ, a broth - er - hood Breth - ren dwell in u - ni - ty ev - - - er prais - ing God! As the Je - - - sus on - ly see. As from

That is ev - er prais - ing God!
And can Je - - sus on - ly see.

pre - - - cious oint - ment spread, And that Her - - - mon falls the dew, Down up -

As the pre - cious oint - ment spread,
As from Her - mon falls the dew, flowed from Aa - ron's head Down up - on Mount Zi - on too, So God's

And that flowed from Aa - ron's head Down that up - on Mount Zi - on too, on bless - - his ings, ves - ture fair, Shed - ding Fall on

Down up - on his ves - ture fair, So God's bless - ings, rich and free, fra - - - grance ev - ery - where.

Chris - - - tian u - ni - ty.

Shed - ding on fra - - grance ev - ery - where.
Fall on Chris - tian u - ni - ty.