This musical system consists of a treble and a bass staff, both in a key with two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The treble staff features a melody with eighth and quarter notes, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The lyrics are written below the staves, with a dash at the beginning of the first line.

Go-ing where no one dies, heav-en-ward bound.
Go-ing where no - one dies,

This musical system continues the hymn with a treble and a bass staff in the same key. The treble staff melody includes a long note at the end of the first line, which is tied to the second line. The bass staff accompaniment follows a similar pattern. The lyrics are aligned with the musical notes.
